

The image shows a wall made of dark, horizontal wooden slats. Three vertical wooden columns are attached to the wall, each containing a series of horizontal shelves. The shelves are made of a lighter-colored wood, creating a strong contrast with the dark wall. The lighting is dramatic, highlighting the texture of the wood and the geometric patterns of the shelves.

Lezzi-architectes
Travaux récents

Exposition
24/01-08/02 2003